
Ministry of Interior Websites Privacy Policy

1. Collection and Use of Information and Data

1.1. While visiting and browsing the websites of the Ministry of Interior, the following information is automatically collected and stored:

1.1.1. Date and time of the visit

1.1.2. IP Address

1.1.3. Browser type and settings

1.1.4. Operating System

1.1.5. Geolocation based on IP address

1.2. When providing personal data and information such as (Name, ID number, e-mail address, or phone number) through filling out a form, or using electronic services provided by the Ministry of Interior, the information and personal data submitted will be processed and stored to provide the requested service.

1.3. The information collected will be used to:

1.3.1. Allow users to access services and platforms of the Ministry of Interior.

1.3.2. Collect statistical and behavioral information about the uses of the websites of the Ministry of Interior to determine the size and patterns of use to conduct analytical studies.

2. Security

The Ministry of the Interior is committed to taking strict precautionary measures to maintain the security and integrity of user data and information, through the use of approved and recognized systems, technologies, and practices to prevent any unauthorized third-party access.

3. Links to other websites

3.1. The privacy policy applies to Ministry of Interior websites only.

3.2. The websites and platforms of the Ministry of Interior may contain links to other government institutions and agencies. When accessing websites through the links provided by the Ministry of Interior, the user is subject to the privacy and security policy of the external site. The Ministry of Interior urges users to read the privacy policy of any external sites.